

Learning A-Z's Curriculum Resource Reading A-Z Receives Two Coveted Awards For Providing Top ELL Resources

Tucson, AZ, July 8, 2015 — Learning A-Z™, an online provider of PreK–6 education solutions and a division of Cambium Learning® Group, Inc., recently received two prestigious awards for the leveled content provided in its flagship reading product, Reading A-Z, that supports English language learners (ELLs).

Reading A-Z offers an extensive collection of leveled books translated into Spanish and French; it also provides additional resources to help reading specialists, tutors, and classroom teachers support ELLs. ELL resources are created using leading research-based strategies and designed to meet the needs of English learners at all levels of language proficiency, from beginners to more advanced students.

Reading A-Z's recent ELL awards include:

2015 SIIA CODiE Award
Best ELL/World Language Acquisition Instructional Solution

2015 AAP REVERE Award
Supplemental Resources, Resources for ELL

"These recent awards for Reading A-Z's ELL resources are a great example of our commitment to helping every student succeed," said Bob Holl, president and cofounder of Learning A-Z. "Today, ELLs make up nearly ten percent of the United States' student population, and the number of international students needing ELL resources we reach continues to grow each year. We're happy to be recognized for providing high-quality resources that support students learning English as a second language and help them shine."

Reading A-Z is a leading K–5 curriculum resource that provides an extensive collection of leveled fiction and nonfiction books, lesson plans, worksheets, and more. The product contains a number of resources for teaching students who are currently learning English; it can also be upgraded to the Learning A-Z Enhanced ELL Reading Solution, which provides a large collection of additional time-saving ELL-specific resources available in printable, projectable, digital, and mobile formats.
