

Cambium Learning Group Named 2015 REVERE Finalist in 6 Categories for Education Innovation

Dallas, May 14, 2015 — Cambium Learning[®] Group (Nasdaq: ABCD) was recently named as a finalist in six categories for the Association of American Publishers (AAP)'s annual REVERE Awards for education innovation. Two of Cambium Learning Group's business units, ExploreLearning[®] and Learning A-Z[™], were honored with this distinction.

The annual REVERE Awards recognize exemplary learning resources for PreK–12 students, educators, and administrators, as well as adult learners. Each entry was rigorously evaluated with an emphasis on feedback from both professional educators and product developers.

“As an organization whose mission is to improve the achievements of all learners through innovative solutions, we are honored to be amongst the finalists in several categories for the 2015 REVERE Awards,” said John Campbell, CEO of Cambium Learning Group. “We are pleased to see both ExploreLearning and Learning A-Z celebrated as top teaching and learning resources.”

REVERE Finalist Categories for ExploreLearning:

- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Innovation: Reflex[®]
- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Mathematics: Reflex

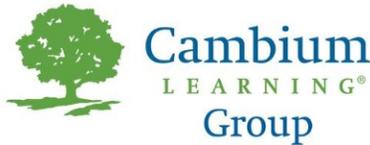

REVERE Finalist Categories for Learning A-Z:

- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Reading and Language Arts: Reading A-Z
- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Resources for ELLs: Reading A-Z
- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Resources for Learners with Special Educational Needs: Raz-Kids
- Classroom Supplemental Resources, Science, Health, and the Environment: Science A-Z
