

Cambium Learning Technologies Business Units Receive Six Nominations for Association of Educational Publisher Awards

DALLAS, TX – May 11, 2011 – Cambium Learning® Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: ABCD) announced today that ExploreLearning and Learning A-Z, two business units within its Cambium Learning Technologies segment, received a total of six nominations for the highly regarded Association of Educational Publisher (AEP) Awards. For more than four decades, the AEP Awards have honored outstanding resources for teaching and learning in all media and for any educational setting and represent the highest standard for quality, professional educational resources and excellence in education marketing. The Association of Educational Publishers' annual awards program and its seal of excellence are widely recognized by educators, administrators, and parents as a mark of outstanding educational value.

“It is an honor to once again have our Cambium Learning Technologies products and services recognized by AEP,” said John Campbell, President of Cambium Learning Technologies. “Receiving nominations like this from highly regarded industry groups, like AEP, reinforces the fact that the educational technology programs we offer teachers and students are beneficial and align well with our goal to help all children reach their full learning potential.”
