

Daily Language Practice

Monday Week 7
Set 4

1. Underline what is being said and circle who said it.

Diego inquired, "What is cricket?"

2. Circle where commas should be included.

"Cricket" Diego's teacher said "is a game similar to baseball."

3. Fill in the blank with a comparative adjective meaning "more tricky."

Reading about the rules made it seem _____
than baseball.

4. Rewrite the sentence to include correct capitalization.

My favorite is an afghan cricket player, while hers is an australian player.

_____

_____

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

Once you start playing she said it is pretty easy?

_____

_____

_____

Daily Language Practice

Monday Week 7
Set 4

1. Underline what is being said and circle who said it.

Diego inquired, "What is cricket?"

2. Circle where commas should be included.

"Cricket" Diego's teacher said "is a game similar to baseball."

3. Fill in the blank with a comparative adjective meaning "more tricky."

Reading about the rules made it seem _____
than baseball.

4. Rewrite the sentence to include correct capitalization.

My favorite is an afghan cricket player, while hers is an australian player.

_____

_____

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

Once you start playing she said it is pretty easy?

_____

_____

_____

Daily Language Practice

Tuesday
Set 4

Week
7

1. Add the missing quotation marks.

Cricket isn't easy, Coach explained.

2. Add the missing commas.

"One team is out in the field" he continued "trying to catch the ball."

3. Underline the comparative adjectives and circle what is being compared.

Cricket bats are flatter than baseball bats, which are rounder.

4. Fill in the blank with a comparative adverb for the underlined verb.

Do you have to run _____ to score?

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

I borrowed the book cricket rules: a player's guide I said to reinforce what my coach has taught me

---

---

---

Daily Language Practice

Tuesday
Set 4

Week
7

1. Add the missing quotation marks.

Cricket isn't easy, Coach explained.

2. Add the missing commas.

"One team is out in the field" he continued "trying to catch the ball."

3. Underline the comparative adjectives and circle what is being compared.

Cricket bats are flatter than baseball bats, which are rounder.

4. Fill in the blank with a comparative adverb for the underlined verb.

Do you have to run _____ to score?

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

I borrowed the book cricket rules: a player's guide I said to reinforce what my coach has taught me

---

---

---

Daily Language Practice

Wednesday

Week
7

Set 4

1. Add the missing quotation marks and commas.

After one batter hits the ball she stated the batters switch places.

2. Fill in the blank with dialogue that asks how players score and earn outs with correct punctuation.

Lorenzo asked _____

3. Choose the best comparative adjective to complete the sentence.

There is a _____ number of people needed for cricket than for baseball.

a) bumpier      b) quicker      c) greater      d) lengthier

4. Fix the capitalization in the sentence.

Ramia used a german word that Rylee and I did not understand.

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

we were more confused when our teammate yelled out something in french instead of spanish

Daily Language Practice

Wednesday

Week
7

Set 4

1. Add the missing quotation marks and commas.

After one batter hits the ball she stated the batters switch places.

2. Fill in the blank with dialogue that asks how players score and earn outs with correct punctuation.

Lorenzo asked _____

3. Choose the best comparative adjective to complete the sentence.

There is a _____ number of people needed for cricket than for baseball.

a) bumpier      b) quicker      c) greater      d) lengthier

4. Fix the capitalization in the sentence.

Ramia used a german word that Rylee and I did not understand.

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

we were more confused when our teammate yelled out something in french instead of spanish

Daily Language Practice

Thursday

Set 4

Week
7

1. Add the missing quotation marks.

To get a player out, there are three things you can do,
Lucia shared.

2. Rewrite the sentence to include correct punctuation for dialogue.

If you can catch the ball they hit she said that counts as an out.

---

---

3. Write two examples of a comparative adverb.

---

4. Circle the words that should be capitalized.

We cannot wait to watch the english and irish cricket
match tonight.

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

we practiced switching places fast than our teammates
I told Papa

---

---

Daily Language Practice

Thursday

Set 4

Week
7

1. Add the missing quotation marks.

To get a player out, there are three things you can do,
Lucia shared.

2. Rewrite the sentence to include correct punctuation for dialogue.

If you can catch the ball they hit she said that counts as an out.

---

---

3. Write two examples of a comparative adverb.

---

4. Circle the words that should be capitalized.

We cannot wait to watch the english and irish cricket
match tonight.

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

we practiced switching places fast than our teammates
I told Papa

---

---

Daily Language Practice

Friday
Set 4

Week
7

1. Rewrite the sentence to include correct punctuation for dialogue.

Oh I get it Lola blurted. The bowler throws the ball to one of the batters to hit.

---

---

2. Add the missing commas.

“Yes” Rafael answered “then the batters switch places to score.”

3. Choose the best comparative adverb for the sentence.

Arlo tries to catch the ball _____ than normal.

a) more gracefully    b) gracefullier    c) more gracefulest

4. Underline the comparative adjectives and circle what is being compared.

Is this a game for older or younger people?

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

anyone can learn game this mom said

---

---

Daily Language Practice

Friday
Set 4

Week
7

1. Rewrite the sentence to include correct punctuation for dialogue.

Oh I get it Lola blurted. The bowler throws the ball to one of the batters to hit.

---

---

2. Add the missing commas.

“Yes” Rafael answered “then the batters switch places to score.”

3. Choose the best comparative adverb for the sentence.

Arlo tries to catch the ball _____ than normal.

a) more gracefully    b) gracefullier    c) more gracefulest

4. Underline the comparative adjectives and circle what is being compared.

Is this a game for older or younger people?

5. Circle the mistakes. Then fix and rewrite the sentence.

anyone can learn game this mom said

---

---