

Quick Reference

- A Member Login, using your username and password, grants you access to all Writing A-Z content.
- B The Resource Menu is the heart of Writing A-Z. Here you will find early writing lessons, writing tools, activities, instructional support, and more!
- C Use the Search Bar to quickly find a resource to address a specific topic, skill, or interest.
- D Manage Students is the starting point for accessing your student roster, reports, and assignments. This is also where you go to score student activities in your In Basket.

The Instructional Support section, located at the bottom of every page, offers helpful information on getting started, instructional tools, research, professional learning, and more.

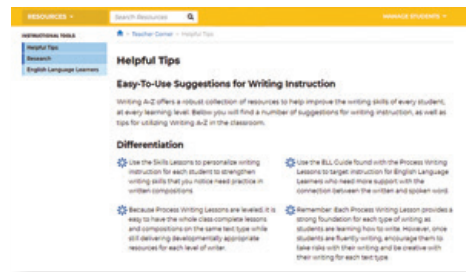

Revised 072020

Log In and Access These Helpful Links and Resources

Learn how to get your students started.

Located under Instructional Support > Student Connections > Getting Students Started in 3 Steps

Read Helpful Tips for writing instruction.

Located under Instructional Support > Instructional Tools > Helpful Tips

Get support for English Language Learners.

Located under Instructional Support > Instructional Tools > English Language Learners

Get to know the Kids A-Z student portal.

Located under Instructional Support > Student Connections > Get to Know the Student Portal

Find how we align to U.S. State Standards.

Located under Instructional Support > Standards and Correlations > U.S. State Standards

Build your knowledge with Professional Development.

Located on LearningA-Z.com > Resources > Professional Development

Learn more about Writing A-Z from the Video Library.

Located under Instructional Support > Professional Development > Video Library